

RoHS Certificate of Conformance

U-TEK EMI CORP. hereby certifies that having engaged in due diligence, and to the best of our knowledge, all U-TEK EMI Shielding Products, when purchased in their commercially available form, and the processes used to produce them, have been evaluated and found to be fully compliant (i.e. Compliant without exemption, sometimes also referred to as being RoHS 10 compliant,) and will continue to be compliant, to Directive 2011/65/EU and 2015/863/EU (RoHS 2.0) of the European Union.

This declaration is made with the proviso that the subject product is used for its intended purpose. Applications which utilize the product in conditions, or for purposes other than the intended purpose, may change the product's status with respect to RoHS compliance. U-TEK EMI CORP. makes no claims or inferences of the compliance status of any product used for purposes other than its intended purpose.
